

Step 1	Read and box in the title	Beware of the Dog!
Step 2	Box in paragraphs and number them	"Since your mom has to work late today, we get to study at my house for a change," Jorge reminded Sofia. They were walking home from school. Sofia's hands got clammy just thinking about going to Jorge's house. He lived just down the street from her, so she had seen his gigantic dog racing crazily around his yard, barking his head off. If she went to Jorge's house, Sofia just knew that dog would jump all over her and knock her flat on the ground. When that huge dog stood on his back feet, Sofia was sure that his paws would reach all the way to her shoulders!
Step 3	Read the passage carefully	Read slowly and think about what you're reading.
Step 4	Read the question and highlight the important words	1. How did the author show that Sofia is working to overcome her fear?
Step 5	Read answer choice and rate them <ul style="list-style-type: none"> - ✓ for right answer - ? if you don't know - ✗ for wrong answer 	She is shaking by the time Jorge opens his front door. ✗ She throws the ball for the dog after he drops it at her feet. ✓ She suggests going to the park to study instead of Jorge's house. ✗ She gets clammy hands just by thinking about going to Jorge's house. ✗
Step 6	Go back in the story and prove your answer	#2 Jorge sighed and tried again. "Why would we sit in the rain at the park when we could be dry and warm inside my house? Anyway, your mom is going to pick you up at my house, remember?"
Step 7	Go back and darken or circle your answer	A. She B. She C. She D. She
